

Quality Labelling Standard for Processed Foods

(Notification No. 513 of the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries of March 31, 2000)

(UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION)

Established: March 31, 2000

Partially revised: December 19, 2000

(Scope of Application)

Article 1. This standard shall apply to the processed foods (limited to those kept in container or package).

(Definitions)

Article 2. In this standard, the definition of terms in the left column of the following table shall be as given in the corresponding right column.

Term	Definition
Processed foods	Those listed in the Attached Table 1 as the foods manufactured or processed.
Best-before date (Date of minimum durability)	The date up to which it is considered that any product sealed in any unopened container or package adequately maintains all the quality characteristics expected of the product if the product is preserved according to the indicated instruction for storage.
Use-by date	The date up to which it is considered that any product sealed in any unopened container or package maintains the quality that is expected good enough to be taken as food if the product is preserved according to the indicated instruction for storage.

(Matters to be Labelled Collectively)

Article 3. Regarding the quality of processed foods, the matters to be labelled collectively by manufacturers, processor/packers or importers (distributors if the distributors are in a position to make the quality labelling on behalf of the manufacturers or processor/packers with the latter's agreement to it. Referred to as the "manufacturer, etc." hereinafter) on the container or package of the processed foods shall be as shown below. However, this provision shall not apply to the case that any persons manufacture or process foods and sell them to general consumers directly or provides the facilities to have them eat or drink those foods.

(1) Name

- (2) Names of ingredients
- (3) Net contents
- (4) Best-before date (Date of minimum durability)
- (5) Instruction for storage
- (6) Name or trade name and address of manufacturer, etc.

2. With regard to the products where liquid packing media are added to solid products and then the final products are sealed in cans or bottles (except those in which the drained weight is difficult to control), the drained weight and the total quantity of contents shall be labelled in place of the matter listed in the preceding paragraph, Item 3 for the items labelled collectively on the cans or the bottles by the manufacturer, etc. However, this provision shall not apply to the case that the drained weight and the total quantity of contents are nearly the same or the purpose of adding liquid packing medium is only to protect the contents.

3. With regard to the products where liquid packing media are added to the solid products and the final products are sealed in containers or package other than cans or bottles, the drained weight may be labelled in place of the matter listed in Paragraph 1, Item 3 for the items labelled collectively by the manufacturer, etc. on the containers or packages other than cans or bottles.

4. With regard to the products that should be consumed promptly after manufactured due to its quickly changeable quality, the use-by date shall be labelled in place of the matter listed in Paragraph 1, Item 4 for the items labelled collectively on the containers or packages by the manufacturer, etc.

5. With regard to imported products, a name of country of origin shall be labelled in addition to the items labelled collectively on the containers or packages by the manufacturer, etc.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 1 hereof, with regard to those products falling under the division given in the left column of the following table, the labelling items given in the corresponding right column may be omitted.

Division	Matters to be labelled
The area of the container or package of the product is not more than 30cm ² .	Name of ingredients, Best-before date (Date of minimum durability) or Use-by date, and Instructions for storage

Those containing a kind of ingredient only (except canned foods and meat products)	Name of ingredients
Those of which net contents can be easily identified (except the specified commodities listed under Article 5 of the Government Ordinance for the Measurement Concerning Sale of Specified Commodities (Government Ordinance No. 249 of 1993))	Net contents
Those listed in the Attached Table 2 as the products that undergo very slight change of quality	Best-before date (Date of minimum durability) and Instructions for storage
Those for which there is no particular instruction for storage other than the storage at an ordinary temperature	Instructions for storage

(Method of Labelling)

Article 4. In labelling the matters provided in Items 1 through 5 of Paragraph 1 of the preceding article, drained weight and total quantity of contents in Paragraph 2 of the same article, drained weight in Paragraph 3 of the same article and use-by date in Paragraph 4 of the same article, the manufacturer, etc. shall comply with the provisions of the following items:

Remarks

1. The color of the letters and frames to be used for labeling shall be in contrast to that of the background.
2. The letters used for labelling shall be in the uniform-sized printing type and the size equivalent or larger than 8 point as provided for in the Japanese Industrial Standards (JIS) Z8305 (1962), provided that they may be a printing type of 5.5 point through 7.5 point as provided for in JIS Z8305 (1962) with respect to the maximum labelling area of approximately 150 cm² or smaller.
3. The items on which labelling is not made shall be omitted from among those listed in this form.
4. "Name" in this form may be replaced by "Name of the product", "Classification" or "Name of classification".
5. In case that it is difficult to label the "Best-before date (Date of minimum durability)" in accordance with this form, it may be labelled in another place providing that the place where it is stated is indicated in the column of the "Best-before date (Date of minimum durability)" in this form. In this case, the "Instructions for storage" may also be stated in close proximity to the place where the "Best-before date (Date of minimum durability)" is mentioned providing that such a place is indicated in the column of "Instructions for storage" in this form.
6. "Best-before date" in this form may be replaced with "Date of minimum durability".
7. With respect to the products that are liable to deteriorate rapidly and should accordingly be consumed soon after produced, "Best-before date" shall be replaced with "Use-by date".
8. In the case that labelling is made by a processor/packer, "Manufacturer" in this form shall be replaced with "Processor".

9. In the case that labelling is made by a distributor, "Manufacturer" in this form shall be replaced with "Distributor".

10. With respect to imported products, "Manufacturer" in this form shall be replaced with "Importer" notwithstanding Item 9 above.

11. This form may be written vertically.

12. In the case that it is difficult to show the frame of this form, it may be omitted.

13. With the matters to be labelled collectively as provided in the standard of quality labelling established under the provisions of Article 19-8, Paragraph 2 of the Law, the matters to be indicated provided in the fair competition code under the provisions of Article 10 of the Act Against Unjustifiable Premiums and Misleading Representations, and any matters to be labelled under the other laws and regulations, they may be indicated within the frame.

Supplementary Provisions

1. This notification shall come into force on the date of enforcement of the Law Revising Part of the Law Concerning Standardization and Proper Labelling of Agricultural and Forestry Products.

2. With respect to the agricultural and forestry products other than those of which the standard of quality labelling have been stipulated under the provisions of Article 19-8, Paragraph 1 of the Law Concerning Standardization and Proper Labelling of Agricultural and Forestry Products prior to the revision by the Law Revising Part of the Law Concerning Standardization and Proper Labelling of Agricultural and Forestry Products, this notification shall apply to those which are manufactured, processed or imported on and after April 1, 2001.

Supplementary Provisions (Notification No. 1,630 of the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries of December 19, 2000)

This notification shall come into force on the date of promulgation.

NOTE: In labelling according to this standard, all the matters shall be stated in Japanese because the purpose of the quality labeling standards is to help general consumers choice (Article 19-8, Paragraph 1 of the Law).
