

InterVeg
Enhancing multifunctional benefits of cover crops – vegetables intercropping

FINAL WORKSHOP

17 February 2015

Città dell'Altra Economia, Largo Dino Frisullo, Rome

AGENDA

Feb, 17 th
09.00	Welcome and participants' registration
09.10	Opening of the workshop (Stefano Canali, CRA), Project Coordinator The role of the Italian Ministry of Agriculture in promoting Organic Food and Farming research (Francesco Riva, MIPAAF) Agroecology and ecological intensification: key approaches for OFF research at CRA (Stefano Bisoffi, CRA), Scientific Director
10.00	Showing of the video: InterVeg - Enhancing multifunctional benefits of cover crops - vegetables intercropping
10.30	Presentation of the final results of the project: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Yield, costs and energy use of living mulch based vegetable cropping systems (Stefano Canali)
11.00	Coffee break
11.15	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Living mulch for ecological weed management in organic vegetable cropping systems (Corrado Ciaccia)- Nitrogen management in organic cauliflower and leek intercropping systems across European conditions (Hanne L. Kristensen)- Living mulch and arthropod fauna: analysis of ecological sustainability of cauliflower in four different European scenarios (Giovanni Burgio)- Living mulch in open field vegetable production in Slovenia (Martina Robacer)

The project "INTERVEG Enhancing multifunctional benefits of cover crops – vegetables intercropping" is funded via the ERA-net CORE Organic II by national funds to each partner.

13.00	Organic lunch at Caffè Boario c/o Città dell' Altra Economia
14.30	Stakeholders involvement: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Participatory research in Organic Food and Farming (Luca Colombo, FIRAB)- Panel discussion with stakeholders, moderated by Luca Colombo and with the participation of: Daniela Altera, Ministero dell'Ambiente e della Tutela del Territorio e del Mare, Italy Steven Jacobs, Organic Farmers & Growers, United Kingdom Francesca Chiarini, Veneto Agricoltura, Italy
16.00	End of the workshop

Participation fee: 20 euro.

The participation fee includes catering in the seminar room (2 coffee breaks and 1 lunch).

Please, register your participation in advance: write an email to the following address: d.doppido@aiab.it, within the 9th of February. Payments can be made in cash at the registration.